THE WEEKLY REPORT

Modest Sevenoaks are absolutely Sunsational!

In an awesome first half display that saw the WBBL MVP of the Year, Cat Carr, score nearly as many points as the opposition, Sevenoaks shut out Leicester to record a 38-20 halftime lead. Carr went on to win MVP of the match (pictured left) after scoring a total of 19 points, 8 rebounds and 8 assists.

Plenty of the Suns' faithful had arrived at the O2 to cheer on their Championship winning side, and it wasn't long before they got their reward.

In the opening three and a half minutes, there was amazingly no score. However Sevenoaks, led by Carr, took the game to Leicester, opening up a 6-0 lead with Ta'Yani Clarke and Julia Koppl joining in. Kate Oliver got Riders off the blocks before Clarke and Carr then extended Suns lead to 11 points. A total of 10 points for Carr and a late run in the paint for Riders saw the 1st quarter finish 16-9 to Suns.

Len Busch will be back at training on Tuesday evening in Sevenoaks, working with the next generation of Sevenoaks Suns' basketball players.

This is how modest Sevenoaks Suns Coach, and WBBL Coach of the Year, Busch used the post-match press conference after heaping praise on his all-star team after they won the WBBL Playoff Final at The O2 Arena in London on Sunday afternoon against Leicester Riders.

Sevenoaks started the second quarter much as they had finished the first, with Carr adding to her tally. Commonwealth Games silver medallist, Chantelle Pressley then got herself off the mark before Clarke added another basket. Then, Sevenoaks born and bred 'three-point' specialist, Ashleigh Munns shot to give Suns a 14-point lead, 25-11.

Towards the end of the half, Renee Busch and Judit Fritz joined the party, with Pressley adding another three points to go into the break at 38-20. There was absolutely nothing Leicester could do to contain the fire of the Suns.

Carr started the second half with another four points as Sevenoaks already looked to have this match sealed up. Koppl and Clarke netted before Fritz added five more in the last two minutes. With one quarter of the match to go, Sevenoaks were now leading 54-34.

The crowd had now stepped up their celebrations as the players came out for the last 10 minutes. Pressley hit another three points, Munns and Amelia Watkins added before Koppl all but ended the match with another two points.

Such was Sevenoaks' lead in the match that youngsters Haylee Miller, Alex Baker and Kaitlyn Lewis were rewarded with some game time as Busch netted another three points to seal the match and the Play-Off Trophy to add to their WBBL Championship which they won in April.

MVP Cat Carr was jumping for joy at this result: "We just went out and played Suns basketball," said Carr.

"We struggled against them (Leicester) in the WBBL Betty Cordona Trophy Final but ever since then we have had a new focus. That is why we wanted to play Leicester and we executed our game plan perfectly."

Back to work on Tuesday

Head Coach Len Busch was also thrilled to be bringing the WBBL Play-Off trophy back to Sevenoaks. Speaking after the game, he said: "I am very happy, all along we tried to be the best team and I think this was the case.

"It was our best 40 minutes of basketball this season and it came at the right time. I didn't realise we got so many rebounds, but this shows the intensity that we played with – which was the key to winning the game."

Asked where the club goes after winning the Championship and the Play-Off Trophy, Busch said: "I'll be back to training on Tuesday with the young players of the club and starting to get ready for next year, to be the best that we can be again".

Carr added: "Our club is a lot about our younger kids, we try to show them that when you work hard and push yourself you can get to situations like this.

"When they come watch us they think it's just amazing and it makes you feel really good about yourself".

Kemsing father and son record 201 before 1st wicket

Kent Village League Division Four - Kemsing beat Limsfield Chart by 268 runs

On a cloudless day and against one of Kemsing Cricket Club's 'Bogey Teams', captain Grahame Wood won the toss and had no hesitation in batting on what the Groundsman described as "a good track".

When young Jake Wood was given out in the 29th over, one side looked a lot happier than the other. 201 for the first wicket of the day was a new father and son record and the fifth highest partnership in KCC history. What a great effort by both Woods!

"Grahame had been trying to get himself out for ages" according to Roger Shaddock. He eventually succeeded three overs later, and went for a magnificent 166 from 105 balls.

This gave James Walkling and debutant Harry Cottle, the remaining eight overs to score 81 to get them past 300 runs. This they did, with Walkling hitting 63 from 32 balls, and Harry with 32 from 22 balls. 310-2 at tea.

Kemsing then set about the task of winning the game with the ball. Cottle opened at the top end, with the ever improving, 16-year old, Nizamudin Oryakheil at the pavilion end.

One for the record: Kemsing CC Captain, Grahame Wood, hit 166 before being caught in the field

They also welcomed back Alan Parry, from his self-imposed exile, with the resultant banter volume and quality increasing substantially.

At 33-5, all was going well, as Cottle showed he had some decent wheels! He picked up three and Oryakheil the other two, effectively ending any chance of a shock win!

With Oryakheil reaching his limit of six overs, it was time for Shaddock to come into the attack. However nobody could foresee what happened next, especially the bowler, himself!

Bowling full and straight, with much accompanying noise, he had had three big LBW shouts turned down in his first over, although he recorded a maiden in the process.

Shaddock then took wickets with the second, fifth and sixth balls of his 2nd over, all bowled. The hat-trick ball (first ball of his 3rd over) was where it should have been, pinning the batsman in front of middle and leg, with the Limsfield Chart skipper for the day, Jason Cummings, obliging with the decision. This was Shaddock's first hat-trick for 40 years.

Number 11 succumbed to another yorker four balls later and they were all out for just 42 runs. Shaddock's best spell of bowling for some time finished with an unlikely 5-0. As you can imagine, full-on celebrations at The Bell followed.

Sevenoaks' Lynch selected to the Jamaican National squad for the Central American and Caribbean Championships

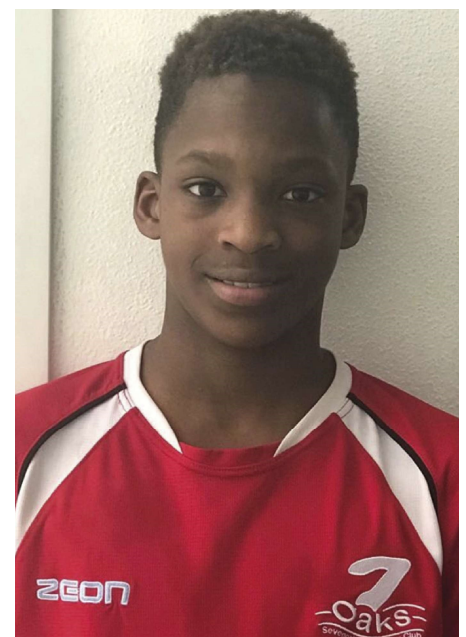

Sevenoaks Swimming Club swimmer, Jaedon Lynch, who is just 12 years old, has been selected to join the Jamaican National Squad for the Central American and Caribbean Championships.

The championships will be held in Aruba during the week of June 28th to July 4th 2018 as part of the CCCAN Games 2018.

With 37 countries competing in these games it is a huge honour and immensely exciting for Jaedon to be selected to compete at such a prestigious event. Jaedon has been a member of Sevenoaks Swimming Club since 2017 and this is the second National call up for their talented youngster. He recently took part in the CARIFTA Games where he became Jamaica's top 11/12 years competitor.

We wish Jaedon all the very best of luck during the competition and look forward to hearing of his success on his return. Sevenoaks Swimming Club is, obviously, incredibly proud of his achievement.

Jaedon Lynch is off to Aruba at the end of June
