THE WEEKLY REPORT

Is England's World Cup progress ruining cricket?

by Steve Rowley

It can't just be a coincidence can it? 34 cricket matches in Kent were conceded on Saturday as England played Sweden in the quarter finals of the World Cup at 3.00pm.

A massive 25 of those matches were recorded in the Kent Regional Cricket League and those who conceded were all given a minus five points fine.

Where matches were played to their conclusion, there was a wide sense of 'let's get this over with before the football starts' as teams were bowled out in unprecedented low numbers.

One team recorded a score of 55 all out in just 14 overs and this wasn't just apparent in the lower leagues either. In the Kent Premier League Beckenham were all out for 90, although this did take them 33 overs so could be that they just didn't have a good day at the crease.

The Kent County Village League Chairman, Trevor Wright, went on Radio Kent on Saturday morning, talking about the effect of the England football team's success on cricket. He stated that "the league had offered clubs a flexible start time from as early as 11.00am to combat the loss of fixtures today".

34 cricket matches were conceded across Kent on Saturday as England played Sweden

He also reminded clubs that they could shorten the game, by mutual agreement and/or split the innings either side of the football match, which a number of clubs took advantage of.

Roger Shaddock, the Kent County Village League Secretary said: "Cricket is fairly fragile at the moment, with falling player numbers, so something like this makes it doubly hard for clubs to get teams out.

"The youngsters in particular, who are not as committed to cricket, as was the case a couple of generations ago, because of the length of a game and the need for everything to be instant these days."

After the Ashes in 2005, cricket was given a new lifeline as millions of people had watched the matches live on terrestrial television. However, with matches now screened only on Sky, the number who have access to live cricket has dwindled.

Twenty20 in 2020 is currently being discussed by the ECB and the BBC will be allowed to show some live games, however this may come too late to halt the decline.

Sevenoaks A Team are on top of Kent Junior League

Sevenoaks Swimming Club had notable success last week as they hosted the first round of the Kent Junior League at Sevenoaks Leisure Centre

Sevenoaks Swimming club hosted round one of the Kent Junior League (KJL) 2018 at Sevenoaks Leisure Centre last week.

The KJL is the leading team competition for 13 years and under in the county. The Sevenoaks A team were last year's winners and B team were out to prove their place in the premier division this time out.

The fixture pitched both teams against Beckenham, Shepway, Saxon Crown and Black Lion. Unfortunately both teams were somewhat hampered by the late arrival of some swimmers who participated in the national IAPS gala at the London Aquatic Centre that same afternoon although it didn't dampen their efforts.

For some 9 and 10 year olds this gala was their first league fixture and they performed brilliantly within the noisy, competitive environment.

The A team were seeded in top position and quickly justified this rating with a string of first and second places battling with Beckenham, who led after 12 events, but the A team strength in depth told in the end.

They finished with a fine flourish, winning the squadron relay having already secured 25 1st places from the 48 races, helped by Elspeth Watson (220m IM and 100m Fly), Johnny Vowell (50m Breast), Devon Tannock (50m Back), Imogen Stoddart (100m Breast), Amelia Tovey (50m Free), Alyze Gentles (50m Back and 50m Fly), Oliver Dennis (50m Back), Jacob Crombie (50m Free and 50m Breast), Emily Brown (100m Breast), Izabella Okaro (100m Free), Joseph Box (100m free), along with 12 of the 17 relay races.

A special mention must go to Valentina Groves who stood in for an older swimmer who was delayed at the Aquatic Centre and swam a credit worthy 100m butterfly.

The final results were Sevenoaks A first on 263 points, Beckenham 255, Black Lion 165, Sevenoaks B 154, Saxon Crown 125, Shepway 95.

The A team were: Freya Ashdown, Iris Whitlock, Annabel Nung, Ruth Godfrey, Abigail Saunders, Amelia Tovey, Alyze Gentles, Valentina Groves, Millie Armstrong, Izabella Okaro, Eva Okaro, Emily Brown, Imogen Stoddart, Elspeth Watson, Devon Tannock, Jacob Crombie, Maxwell Haslam, Xavier Hards, Oliver Dennis, Jonathan Vowell, Thomas Johnston, Macaulay Johnston, Seamus Hamilton, Ben Watson, Joseph

Box, Jaedon Lynch, Noah Enticknap and Tom Creasey.

The B team produced a number of solid results with several spectacular races, including a couple of wins against the A team rivals: Caitlin O'Sullivan (under-10 50m free), Amelie Thompson (under-10 50m breast) and Samriddhi Das (under-13 100m Back). The swimmers pulled all the stops out to finish in the top three in an astonishing 22 races.

The B team were: Vivien Rooney, Amelie Thompson, Evie Collings, Caitlin O'Sullivan, Evie Armstrong, Fern Gray, Mia Bakunowicz, Olivia Dyckhoff, Isla Murphy, Martha Roberts, Daisy McMillan, Rosie Deacon, Samriddhi Das, Isabelle MacKenzie, Kara Dimond, Holly Gushlow, Matthew McLean, Boris Argirov, Aidan Moore, Hugo Schwemm, Ptolemy Mangat, Joseph Strebel, George Rehbein, Zachary Loder, Zachary Howard, Albert Whitlock, William Jarrett, Ethan Martin, Thiago Gentles, Edward Holness and James Fry.

The coaches thanked all the poolside helpers, officials and the leadership group for supporting and enabling this event, in particular Janet Benn for organising the venue and helpers.

Round two will take place on September 8th.

Holmesdale on fire as they record third straight win

Kent Cricket League Division One XI: Holmesdale (237-7) beat Folkestone (234 all out)

Holmesdale entered the week full of confidence and looking for three wins on the bounce. A top of the table clash saw Holmesdale play Folkestone as the second half of the season commenced.

Holmesdale lost the toss and were forced to field on a extremely hot day. They got off to a flyer with Folkestone on 24-4 with two wickets from Luke Blackaby, one from Ben Fawcitt and a sharp runout from Rupert Harbig.

Folkestone fought back putting on a large fifth wicket partnership, however some tight bowling from the spinners stemmed the flow and Blackaby came back on breaking the 162 partnership and then cleaned up the tale to end up with figures of 5-32. Folkestone eventually reaching 234 all out.

Holmesdale got off to a rocky start in their innings finding themselves 49-5, however Fawcitt, who had been promoted up the order produced a patient 83 not out, playing some exquisite shots and showing real maturity. Fawcitt was well supported by Harbig (36) and Nick Miller (39) not out to steer Holmesdale to what had seemed an unlikely victory. Holmesdale now top the table and face a struggling Dartford this Saturday.

Kent Cricket League Premier 2nd XI: Tenterden 2nd (228 all out) lost to Holmesdale 2nd (229-9)

Holmesdale 2nd XI made it two wins from two on Saturday with a fairytale victory against Tenterden. Losing the toss and being asked to field first was never going to be easy but Holmesdale stuck at it in the field, bowling out Tenterden for 228 - a score which could have been much higher considering Tenterden were 150-1 after 30 overs. There were key performances from Richard Linfield (4-49), David Hudson (2-29) and Jamie Monkhouse (2-35).

Holmesdale's response got off to a limp start as they were reduced to 70-7. Enter Holmesdale's star man with the bat this season - Michael Brown (95). Aply assisted by number 9, Hudson (35), they rebuilt the Holmesdale innings, putting on 130 for the ninth wicket and taking the score up to 200. However, both were unluckily adjudged LBW in quick succession, meaning that the last 28 runs were left up to numbers 10 and 11, Monkhouse and Will Dickinson.

Five nervy overs later and there were jubilant scenes in the visitors changing room as Monkhouse (22*) dispatched the winning runs in what had become a heated affair.

The win takes the 2nd XI into 7th place of the Premier League and they now look forward to the challenge of the derby with Sevenoaks Vine this weekend.
