THE WEEKLY REPORT

Kemsing lift the Village League Division 4 title!

Kent County Village League Division Four: Kemsing (54-0) beat Shipbourne 2nd (53 all out)

Kemsing were playing already relegated Shipbourne 2nd on a scorcher of a day at the picturesque Kemsing ground. Unfortunately, Kemsing skipper, Grahame Wood, lost the toss and Shipbourne decided to bat, in an effort to keep the game as short as possible.

With 16 year-old Nizam taking 3 cheap wickets up front, the innings faltered immediately. Harry Cottle returned from his extended European holiday, to play his first game in 9 weeks, and was unlucky to go wicketless, before making way for Ian Wise.

Nizam was replaced by Roger Shaddock and both change bowlers snaffled a couple of victims, before James Walkling came on for only his second short spell of the season, taking two wickets in four balls, for no runs, to finish the innings on 53.

Skipper Wood, with son, Jake, knocked off the runs without alarm, to finish the match well inside three hours.

As a result, Kemsing are champions of their division, 23 points ahead of second-placed Chiddingstone, who lost badly at relegated Knockholt.

Kemsing CC, Back: Jake Wood, Jake Martin, James Walkling, Roger Shaddock, Harry Cottle, Martin Green, Ian Wise, Gemma Stepney. Front: Paul Bean, Colin Scarsi, Grahame Wood, Nizam

Roger Shaddock is the division's top bowler, with 38 victims, with Nizam (21) and Stuart Barnes (16) not far behind. While Grahame Wood (693), James Walkling (560) and Jake Wood (496) are all in the top ten run-scorers in the division.

Martin Green, Grahame Wood and James Walkling are all near the top of the fielding list for the division and wicket-keeper Paul Bean is high in the charts for his discipline.

A very satisfactory season for the club, which looked most enjoyable for all concerned. Roger Shaddock particularly wanted to thank Gemma Stepney, Kemsing's scorer, who did not miss a single game and whose support was very much appreciated throughout the season.

• Meanwhile Farningham Cricket Club lifted the division two title and Chevening Amblers and Otford 2nd gained promotion from division six and seven respectively.

Faversham go to town with win over Sevenoaks

Sevenoaks travelled to the coast for their first away league fixture on Saturday at Faversham, however the result was not one to send a postcard home about.

Faversham striker Harry Goodyer opened the scoring in the 7th minute after some great build up play which found Sevenoaks asleep.

Faversham then doubled their lead in the 11th minute after a contentious push by Jack Harris was ignored by the referee and he subsequently turned to set up a halftime score of 2-0 to the hosts.

Sevenoaks rarely troubled the home sides defence, however the opposite was not true. In the 53rd minute, Goodyer scored his second with a well placed free kick from outside the box. The visitors never seemed quite on top of their game, but a late header from Tom Ripley gave Sevenoaks a consolation goal in injury time.

Sevenoaks will have to pack their bags for the coast again this weekend as they travel to Ramsgate in the FA Cup. Let's hope they remember to take their shooting boots too!

LONDON 1 SOUTH: Sevenoaks 40
Thurrock 15

The two hundred-strong Paddock faithful roaring the Oaks on were graced with sunny weather and bright running rugby as Sevenoaks opened its League account with a compelling team performance that owed much to the hard yards, sweat and pain of nine weeks of pre-season training.

The opening exchanges, however, saw the visitors in the ascendency, and it was Thurrock who crossed the line first following a midfield break. Their advantage was pegged back by the imperious boot of Ben Adams, who both opened and closed the scoring for Sevenoaks – providing the icing on the cake of an outstanding performance in all but the final play of the game by scoring a try on the counter that was set up by Cormac Barry, which Adams converted.

The nip and tuck match was very tight to half-time. Although Oaks were 23-10 up at the break following the first of two tries by centre Thorneycroft after scrum half Matt Holmes' opener, you sensed Thurrock was still in the game and that perhaps the monster long range 3-pointer from the half-way line by Adams midway through the first half would prove vital.

Thurrock certainly started the second half the livelier of the two teams, and

pressed hard at the Oaks defense with solid running in the 10/12 channel and aggressive forays by a strong five-eighth. But the Oaks defensive patterns held sway, and even though Thurrock broke through for a try to make it 26-15 following another immaculate penalty from Ben Adams, as the clock ticked on the Oaks began to gel and the home side's fluidity resulted in a well worked try in the corner for McCrae before a second for Thorneycroft. By this stage fitness was having its say and although Thurrock continued to take the game to Oaks, the navy and golds were growing in confidence, and held the upper hand in both forwards and backs to close out the game in some style.

"I am delighted for the players," said Head Coach Adam Bowman after the match. "We have worked very hard in recent weeks, and our focus in training clearly shone through today. There was brilliant news away from the Paddock as well, with wins for the 2nd XV and the 4th XV away to Vigo to take us into another intense week of training."

Next week the Oaks hit the road in the League, with the 1st XV away to London Cornish, 3:00pm kick off. ## Oaks lads enjoy one last game before university

Sevenoaks Hockey Club members Max Denniff and Kieran Walton are both off to university this year, but not before they faced each other at opposite ends of the pitch as they played a friendly in London at the start of September.

The pre-season friendly match was organised by their respective universities where both boys have made the first teams. Max is starting at Durham University, while his close playing partner is off to Exeter.

Kieran will be back at Holly Bush Lane this season as Exeter play in the Mens Premier League. Good luck on your return Kieran.

- Max has recently been in action in Santander, Spain, where he represented England U18's at The Europeans Championships and he has now been asked to attend a GB Elite Development Assessment Camp in early September at Lilleshall.
