All star bench: Suns' big hitters take time out during the match

Reigning champions go 6-0 for the season

WBBL Championship: Sevenoaks Suns 92 Durham Palatinates 38

Sevenoaks marched to another win in the WBBL Championship on Sunday, defeating four-player Durham Palatinates 92-38, to give them their sixth win of the season and maintaining their 100% record.

In a bizarre turn of events though, Durham had only arrived with a total of five players at the Sennocke Centre in this latest league instalment, partly due to illnesses within their squad.

Unfortunately for the visitors, their best player, Monika Bosili, then rolled her ankle in the third minute of the game and was unable to take part going forward. At this point, Sevenoaks had already taken an 11-0 lead and were looking to post a record score over their opponents. Durham decided that they would not forfeit the game, but to continue with just four players. Credit to them, they battled on for another 37 minutes. Sevenoaks took full advantage of the extra player however, and soared into a 42-10 lead at the break, essentially securing the two points and the win.

During the second half, Head Coach Len Busch utilised his full squad and a number of under-18 players got their first full flavour of the WBBL. Particular performances of note coming from Katie Bennett and Liv Partridge, scoring 11 and 10 respectively. All 12 Suns players scored points on the day.

Meanwhile, Sevenoaks' big hitters were given a rest and at one stage during the game, the bench was filled with seven players who wouldn't look out of sorts in the WBBL team of the week. This included Cat Carr and Ta'Yani Clarke who played just 10 minutes each.

Busch said after the match: "It was a strange one today, nobody likes to see that happen. We could have posted a huge score on them [Durham] today, but that would not have served anyone. Not us, our opponents, nor the league".

What a refreshing match experience, especially given the level at which these teams play each week! Well done to both sides, for completing the match, and in the manner that it was achieved.

Suns now take an enforced four-week break before they return to action on Saturday 1st December at home against Newcastle Eagles. Tip off is currently scheduled for 6.00pm.

Meanwhile, Busch has been crowned Molten WBBL Coach of the Month thanks to Sevenoaks' perfect start.

Sevenoaks gain consolation point on the road

LONDON 1 SOUTH: Medway RFC 45
Sevenoaks Rugby Club 34

Sevenoaks Rugby 1st XV lost 45-34 to Medway in an enthralling encounter at Priestfields on Saturday. The much vaunted clash at the top of London 1 South drew Oaks' winning streak to a close and leaves Medway undefeated at the top of the League.

Oaks were slow out of the starting blocks and were effectively starved of ball for the first 20 minutes, as Medway demonstrated the structured playbook, handling skills and outstanding continuity of a well-drilled unit and rapid back line. Contained behind their own 10 yard line for much of these initial phases, the Oaks defence worked hard and kept their shape to weather the storm, though the high volume of tackles required to hold continuous waves of attack at bay was taking its toll.

When they did finally get the ball Oaks made the most of it and struck first as Ollie Shirtcliff, playing his 100th cap for Sevenoaks, ghosted through the middle of Medway's back line to dot the ball down under the posts and with Adams' resulting conversion Oaks secured a 7-0 lead.

Medway replied in cutting fashion in the form of three tries to a solitary penalty for Oaks: Set up by a telling ascendancy in the scrum, a penalty try plus two further converted tries down the right flank - one a wonderful kick and chase following a deft grubber by the wing back - gave the hosts a 21-10 lead to take into the half time break. With a strong wind in their favour, Oaks will have been disappointed with their first half showing and the ultimate 11 point margin of defeat suggests the game was lost and won in the first half. Slow starts count dearly at this level.

The topsy-turvy second half was a tale of two quarters. After a promising start when a converted try by Alex Suttie narrowed the gap to 21-17, sloppy defending by Oaks and some opportunistic carries and offloads by the hosts saw Medway race into a 42-17 lead. Then someone flicked a switch and thanks to tries by Mike Scott, Scott Sedgwick and Ben Adams, Sevenoaks roared back into contention and at one stage the game seemed as if it might be there for the taking, two of Adams' conversions into the biting wind were unlucky to strike the upright and in a role reversal of the match's opening salvos Medway just couldn't get their hands on the ball.

Time inevitably ran down to see Medway, the better team on the day hold on for the win with Oaks gaining the consolation of a four try bonus point. The return fixture at Knole Paddock comes around in March when the intervening months will have created a fuller picture of how these two impressive Oaks and Medway vintages compare.

On a day when Sevenoaks 1st XV and 3rd XV lost away at Medway, and the 2nd XV and Gents/4th XV won at home versus Medway (a welcome sight of the tradition of a full fixture set at Senior level between two Clubs), it was honours even in a double victory for Home advantage; well played to all 120-plus players involved from both sides of the County on the quality entertainment served up in the autumn sunshine.

Potton reflex saves the day and a point for Oaks

MENS HOCKEY LEAGUE PREMIER DIVISION: Sevenoaks 0 Reading 0

Sevenoaks earned their second point of the season after a tense encounter with Reading on Saturday evening at Hollybush Lane after the match ended scoreless.

In a game where chances were few and far between, the opening exchanges were cagey, with both teams having spells of possession but neither managing to fashion any threatening opportunities on goal.

Reading had the first penalty corner of the game but the effort went wide of goal, then the best chance of the half fell to the visitors when a mis-placed pass put their attacker through; an excellent save by Richard Potton kept out the first effort but the rebound fell to another Reading player who, with the goal gaping, hit the inside of the post and the ball ricocheted to safety.

It was a wake up call to Oaks, who had controlled most of the possession up to that point. Oaks had a couple of opportunities themselves, first when returning captain, Tim Warrington, received an Andrew Ross aerial pass and bore down on goal but saw his reverse stick effort saved by the goalkeeper. Oaks then won a penalty corner, but Ross' effort was easily saved by the keeper. The sides went into the interval without a goal between them.

The second half became a slightly more open and end to end affair but attacking moves by both sides lacked a quality end product.

Sevenoaks orchestrated a good attack which ended with a loose ball falling to Ali

Goalkeeper Richard Potton was named Man of the Match as Sevenoaks drew at home to Reading

Taylor, but his effort was slashed high and wide, before another attack ended with Warrington latching onto a rebound and firing through the keeper's legs, but again, wide of the goal.

The visitors had a couple more penalty corners, with a re-award from the first, but they were unable to get past Sevenoaks' defensive unit.

The home side then responded with a penalty corner of their own but couldn't breach the Reading defence. As full time drew closer, Reading had a glorious chance to snatch a victory when a deflected ball fell to their forward five yards out on the volley, but man of the match Potton made a brilliant reflex save to turn the ball round the post.

Reading were pressing Oaks back into their defensive quarter and in the final minute they won a penalty corner, but fortunately for Oaks the move collapsed and the full time whistle went with the score remaining 0-0.

It was a useful point for Sevenoaks, and a first clean sheet in the Premier League since their promotion last year.

It takes them onto two points for the season, and will give them some confidence going into their crunch away game with fellow strugglers University of Exeter next weekend.
