Can the Suns go the whole season unbeaten?

Sevenoaks Suns remain unbeaten this season as they overpowered Newcastle Eagles on Saturday afternoon

Womens British Basketball League Championship:
Sevenoaks Suns 73
Newcastle Eagles 40

Last year, Sevenoaks Suns marched to the WBBL Championship and Playoff titles losing just one game in the process. Their current form this season is much the same having played seven and won seven, and sometimes you can play below your own expectations and still achieve the win.

On Saturday afternoon Sevenoaks were back at the Sennocke Centre to face a team hotly tipped to challenge for the title this year, Newcastle Eagles.

This was the Suns first game in a month, due to an enforced international break and WBBL Cup games, and this you could tell as they started slowly for a change, going into the second quarter with a slender 17-10 lead over their opponents. Sevenoaks managed to slightly extend their lead by the half to 37-25 however with only eight offensive rebounds from 30-odd, this could have been a lot more.

The Suns started the second half in a more familiar fashion and it wasn't long before their star quality began to shine through on the court.

Janice Monakana came off the bench to score 17, whilst Cat Carr and Judit Fritz put together compelling displays with 13 a-piece. By the end of the third quarter Sevenoaks were 62-33 up on their opponents.

One key stat was that Newcastle were only able to shoot just 25% from the field as the hosts held them to 10 points or less in three of the game's four quarters.

Monakana provided the key spark off the bench, scoring a game-high 17 points from just 11 shots. Carr also shone for the Suns, adding to her 13 points with nine assists.

Now, Sevenoaks' offensive percentages in the game were not anywhere near what they have achieved previously, so perhaps we can put down to their four week break. They won this match on their defensive capabilities, whilst still managing to score 73.

Now they have that game out of their system, we fully expect a much brighter and solid performance at both ends of the court on Sunday, when Newcastle return the favour and host Sevenoaks in the WBBL Cup.

You can be sure that the Sevenoaks Suns will be fighting on three fronts this season; The Championship, the WBBL Cup and the Trophy as well. On current, and perhaps below expected form, we can't see anyone challenging them for their title.

Sevenoaks up to third after emphatic home win

London 1 South: Sevenoaks 37
Dartfordians 12

Sevenoaks drove home a compelling 37-12 victory over Dartfordians on Saturday to move into 3rd slot in London 1 South.

Wet, windy and muddy conditions at Knole Paddock meant it was never going to be a day for running rugby. As the mud bath drew to a close, telling Oaks players apart from Darts had become a sport in itself. Very little purchase underfoot presented difficulty for the backs, bringing kicking for territory and an attritional forwards battle to centre stage.

Oaks opened and closed the game of three thirds in style, faced by a strong Darts outfit that hit back hard and held firm for swathes of the match's middle section. If the final scoreline flatters the navy and golds it also demonstrates Oaks' capacity to play strong for the full 80 minutes.

Oaks' early pressure in high field positions was rewarded in the shape of two penalties for Ben Adams to slot over the posts and converted tries for flanker Will de Smith, rumbling over from close quarters, and wing Johnny Short skipping and slipping through the Darts defence to make a welcome return to the scoresheet - so far so good as Darts had also notched up a converted try of their own to make it 20-7 to Oaks at the half time break.

Darts was the better side for the first 20 minutes of the second half, and while outstanding line speed from the Oaks, Nigel Gumbleton in particular putting in a series of strong hits, helped them maintain the ascendancy the visitors demonstrated the patience these conditions demand to stay very much in contention. At 20-12 following a Darts try they continued to push hard and the game was afoot for anyone that could find their feet.

Then, as if roused from a slumber, Oaks sprang to life in the final quarter to close out the match in the only way the conditions would permit; strong forays by the likes of Alex Suttie, Scott Sedgwick and Josh Pettet into Darts territory resulting in three tries that owed much to those faithful friends; carry, composure and control. The Oaks 2nd

XV also put away Darts 55-5 playing on the adjacent pitch, to make it an excellent double for the boys from the Paddock.

Sevenoaks Rugby 1st XV hits the road next Saturday and heads to Chichester RFC, 2:00pm kick off and all support very welcome.

Dartfordians is one year older than Sevenoaks, formed in 1924 versus 1925 and the sides have enjoyed a friendly rivalry ever since. Many have played for both Darts and Oaks down the years, and mutual and much respected absent friend Ron Standen straddles the two Clubs as an exemplary pillar of the grass roots game. As well as a Dartfordians great Ron performed several highly regarded coaching stints for the Oaks.

Saturday's match and the return fixture at Darts see the two Clubs competing for the inaugural Ron Standen Cup, to honour Ron and the standards he set for us all to follow.
