THE WEEKLY REPORT

Mighty Oaks raise themselves into second place

London 1 South: Chichester RFC 3
Sevenoaks Rugby 26

Sevenoaks RFC 1st XV produced a dominant second half performance on Saturday away at Chichester RFC to record a bonus point victory which sees them move up to second position in London South 1.

Head Coach Adam Bowman was extremely pleased with his teams second half performance and commented that they were patient in the scoring zone, adding that the pack were excellent on the day.

Oaks played into the wind in the first half, with the home side starting stronger, buoyed by a large and vocal home crowd. Despite having the lion share of possession, Chichester were repelled by a resolute Oaks defence, with Nigel Gumbleton and Alex Suttie to the fore.

Mid-way through the first half, Oaks lost centre Kalkani Pehi to a head injury which saw Jonny Short move to outside centre and Academy star Charlie Corrigan come on to the wing. Short in particular had been Oaks main threat in attack, scything through the home defence on the few occasions that Oaks did have possession.

Chichester struck first on the half-hour mark, with a well struck penalty but as time wore on, Oaks began to get a foothold in the game.

The boys from the Paddock hit back with a well worked try, winning a lineout in midfield before working Corrigan into space.

The young winger broke free down the left, drew the last defender and put fellow back three colleague Leighton Ralph over for a fine score. Debutant Ed Ansell, who impressed throughout, converted to give Oaks a 7-3 lead at half time.

Sevenoaks travelled to Chichester on Saturday in great form, and came away with another bonus point win.

As both sides went into the sheds to regroup, wet weather and wind set in and driving rain greeted the players on their return to the field.

With territory and possession beginning to favour Oaks, they turned the screw, first through Suttie, who barged his way over with the help of his team mates, with Ansell converting. Oaks followed this up soon after in almost identical fashion, with Josh Pettet the beneficiary and Ansell again converting to give Oaks a 21-3 lead.

With ten minutes remaining, Oaks achieved the bonus point score thanks to their dominant scrum as the referee awarded a penalty try, after the home sides scrum creaked on one too many occasions due to Oaks dominant scrummaging. Final score 28-3 to Oaks.

After the game, Bowman commented: "That was a really pleasing performance. We dug deep in the first half, with conditions against us and to go in at half time 7-3 up. it gave us a lot of confidence going into the second half.

"I was really pleased with our execution in the second half - we were patient when we got into the scoring zone and I thought the pack was excellent. We will need to maintain this level of performance this coming weekend against London Cornish, a side that beat us earlier on in the season and who will be coming to the Paddock following a really strong win against Hove."

Sevenoaks RFC 1st XV face London Cornish at the Paddock on Saturday. Entry is free and the match will be followed by Christmas Carols in the Clubhouse from 5pm - all are most welcome.

Suns reach WBBL Semi-Final

WBBL Cup: Newcastle Eagles 58
Sevenoaks Suns 80

Sevenoaks Suns have set up a mouth-watering Semi-Final clash with Leicester Riders in the WBBL Cup after defeating Newcastle Eagles late on Sunday.

Len Busch's side are unbeaten in the league this season and have moved a step closer to another Final, one that they have incidentally not won before.

Cat Carr filled the stat-sheet in this long-distanced away match with 24 points along with six rebounds, eight assists and two steals. Three other players in double figures helped the Suns stay unbeaten this season, Janice Monakana with 15, Jessica Good and Ta'Yani Clark both with 12.

As ever with the Suns though, the bench also played their part amassing 24 points towards the final total.

The Eagles actually went into half-time with a slender advantage (40-38), however the Suns came out firing in the third and held the hosts to just five points in the quarter to take control and they raced away to victory in the final quarter.

A key stat in the game showed that Sevenoaks had a 21-9 assists to turnovers mark, while Newcastle were at 11-17 with the visitors profiting from 22 points off of those turnovers.

Sevenoaks will now return to the WBBL Championship and host struggling Caledonia Pride on Sunday lunchtime at 1.30pm. Please don't turn up at the Sennocke Centre though as the match will now be played in Cobham due to court unavailability.

Cat Carr ran the game with 24 points, six rebounds and eight assists.

Ide Hill battle Cuxton and weather to reach final four

Kent Intermediate Challenge Shield:
Ide Hill 3 Cuxton 1991 2

Ide Hill booked their place in the Semi-Final of the Kent Intermediate Challenge Shield on Saturday, the furthest they have ever been in the competition, with a gutsy and bruising 3-2 win over Cuxton 1991.

At close to full strength, Ide Hill fielded a strong side against an impressive Cuxton who came to play on a rainy and windswept afternoon at Wrotham. And the visitors took the lead after 15 minutes, a lovely exchange of passes resulted in the ball being squared to Dan Hanshaw in the box who slid it into an empty net.

Ide Hill had started slowly and needed to remind everyone and themselves why they are top of the league, and they bounced back quickly in the following period, with Callum Heath driving the team forward down the right hand side.

It was through this fertile channel that Ide Hill pulled level, Heath surging through the midfield and slipping in Matt Bunn who, out on the right of the box, scooped an audacious lob over the onrushing keeper and into the net for his eighth goal of the season.

The game then settled into an even rhythm up to the break and into the second period, with Cuxton having plenty of the ball and Ide Hill looking sharp on the break.

The heavens opened just after half time and made playing conditions treacherous, but it was Ide Hill who took the lead on the hour mark; Captain Craig

Jackson hunted down the full back, who duly coughed up the ball on the edge of his box, the ball was flipped to Columb Grant, who slid a deft reverse pass back to Jackson who side footed into the corner for 2-1.

The joy was extremely short lived though, as Cuxton drew level within a minute of the restart; an attack down the right was centred, a goalmouth scramble and a goal line clearance led to the ball falling to Kyle Eastwood, who fired into the corner from 10 yards to pull the scores level again.

With the prospect of extra time looming, Ide Hill got a just about deserved winner on 75 minutes; Ben Holder arcing a lovely free kick into the box which towering centre back Luke Steggles headed precisely into the far corner and beyond the despairing keeper's dive for the win.

Ide Hill have now won 12 out of 15 games played in all competitions and are still challenging on three fronts at the half way stage of the season.

Next week is a massive one on a number of levels; Ide Hill entertain local rivals Chipstead; their closest pursuers in the league and the only team to inflict defeat on Ide Hill in the division. The game will go a long way to deciding who wins the league this season.
