Sevenoaks clubs are rewriting the history books

Sevenoaks Rugby Club and Ide Hill Football Club tore up the history books on Saturday as both were crowned Champions of their respective leagues and venture to heights never before seen at either club.

Sevenoaks RFC travelled to a well organised Thurrock in their last game of the season knowing that a bonus point win would seal the London 1 South title for them. Two tries either side of the half secured the points they needed and they are now part of the London & SE Premier.

Ide Hill enjoyed a 2-1 victory away at South East Athletic in their penultimate league match to secure a place in the Kent County League (KCL) Premier Division as they were crowned league Champions of the KCL Division One West.

Meanwhile, WBBL Champions Sevenoaks Suns stretched their unbeaten season to 21-0. With one game to go, at home on Sunday, they are quite literally on the verge of becoming the 'Unbeatables'!
