FA Cup defeat for Town away at Casuals

Sevenoaks Town were knocked out of the FA Cup on Saturday after losing 4-0 away at Isthmian Premier side Corinthian Casuals. A brace from Nathaniel Pinney was added to goals from Coskun Ekim and Reyon Dillion for the home side.

Sevenoaks will be disappointed to have been knocked out at this early stage, but will take £4,390 from the Cup's prize fund over the two match played.

Mature performance sets up first bonus point win for Mighty Oaks!

Sevenoaks Rugby Club 1st XV secured a bonus point 25-11 win against Bedford Athletic 1st XV, the Oaks first in the London Premier South.

After a wonderful promotion winning season last term, Head Coach Adam Bowman and his men were determined to focus on the here and now. This well measured performance proved to Oaks players and supporters that they certainly deserve the chance to compete at this level.

Two tries from Sean

Derrick, one from Scott Sedgewick, who was enjoying his 100th cap for the club, and another from Fred Richardson saw Oaks take the bonus point. Tom Simmonds had a rather blustery day on pitch and managed just one conversion and a penalty.

After the match, Bowman said: "Clearly we are absolutely delighted with the result, but more importantly the performance. The second half was very mature rugby from across the board and showed that we will be able to compete at this level.

"We will enjoy tonight, rest tomorrow and then get back to work on Tuesday. We've talked all pre-season about the consistency of performance we will need to show in this league as there will be hard game after hard game."

"We look forward to welcoming Sidcup Rugby Club 1st and 2nd XV's to the Paddock next Saturday and hope that we can get as many supporters down as possible to get behind the boys like they did last season – we can't wait."

Kent County sides suffering fatigue?

Crockenhill, Otford United and Ide Hill all suffered defeats on Saturday as the pace of matches looked to have caught up with them all.

Crockenhill and Otford both lost in the Premier 3-0 and 7-1 respectively, whilst Ide Hill went out of the Kent Intermediate Challenge Shield in a 4-1 loss at home to Welling Park from the division below.

Meanwhile, the Sevenoaks & District Football League kicked off at the weekend, however due to no results being available we are unable to bring you any stats for the week.
