Town hit the top of the table as Da Silva scores two more for the season

Kyle Da Silva continued his great start to the season by scoring a brace on Saturday versus Faversham Town to secure another three points for Sevenoaks Town and earn him his second Sevenoaks Sports Man of the Match award for 2019/20.

The win over Faversham at Greatness Park also pushed Sevenoaks to the top of the Isthmian League South East Division after VCD Athletic held Hastings United to a 0-0 draw.

Their league position is the highest ever held by the historic club in its 136 years, and it isn't without its merits either. Town manager, Micky Collins, has got his team working like a very well-oiled machine, and as players suffer injuries or tiredness, other squad members are filling the voids with skill and panache.

The result completed a great week for the club, as they had beaten Burgess Hill Town away the previous Saturday 3-2 before travelling to Hythe Town in midweek where Frankie Sawyer scored the only goal of the game.

Sevenoaks will travel to Phoenix Sports in Crayford on Saturday afternoon where they hope to continue their pulsating start to the season. Phoenix have had a mixed start themselves, winning three and losing four matches so far. But with Hastings and second placed Ashford United coming up in October, points on the board against Phoenix will satisfy everyone as the club complete their first quarter of the season.

Chipstead through after thrilling game at Faversham

Chipstead beat KCL Premier Division Faversham Strike Force Seniors 4-3 in a thrilling Kent Intermediate Challenge Shield match on Saturday afternoon. Goals from Alex McKenzie (2) and Chris Steadman, plus an own goal helped secure their place in the second round.

Meanwhile, Ide Hill fell to their second defeat in cup matches in as many weeks after drawing 1-1 away to Belvedere. The hosts went on to win 4-1 on penalties

Oaks suffer second loss at Wimbledon

Sevenoaks Rugby Club suffered their second loss of the season on Saturday away to Wimbledon in the London Premier.

Outclassed and outpaced, Sevenoaks went down 50-19. Oaks try scorers were Johnny Barber, Sam Porter and Ben Martin.
