Suns are back with double Trophy win to put them in the Semi-Finals

Sevenoaks Suns launched their 2019-20 Women's British Basketball League (WBBL) campaign with two wins in the opening weekend to take them through to the WBBL Trophy Semi-Finals next February.

In a change to the league's normal opening weekend, all teams headed to the University of Essex in Colchester for the Betty Codona WBBL Trophy.

Sevenoaks started their campaign with an 81-60 win over Caledonia Pride on the Friday evening before returning to the Essex Sports Arena on Sunday to defeat Newcastle Eagles 81-57. The two wins placed them top of Group C and they joined Durham Palatinates, Nottingham Wildcats and old foes, Leicester Riders, in the Semi-Finals, which are due to take place over the weekend of February 15/16, 2020.

Len Busch, Sevenoaks' Head Coach, said: "We have ability in all areas, which gives us great ammunition for the season ahead. We are well equipped to go that step further this year".

Suns will return to the court on Saturday 12th October when they host fierce title rivals Leicester Riders in the opening game of the WBBL Championship season for 2019/20.

The match is due to be played at the Sennocke Centre with a 6.00pm tip-off.

Mighty Oaks pack pushes hard for win over Guildford

Sevenoaks Rugby Club returned to winning ways at the Paddock with a 17-3 victory over Guildford on Saturday. The match was barely underway when a long delay resulted from an injury to a Guildford player who is understood to be on the mend

Guildford nudged themselves into the lead through a penalty, however that was to be it for the visitors, as Sevenoaks' defensive setup stood firm. Oaks' tries were from Sam Porter and Sean Derrick.

Town make headway in Velocity Trophy

Sevenoaks Town beat Phoenix Sports 3-0 in the Isthmian League Velocity Trophy on Saturday afternoon which now puts them in pole position in Group 9 of the competition.
