Suns lose for first time since February 2018

Sevenoaks Suns winning streak came to an abrupt end on Saturday evening after losing on the road at Nottingham Wildcats 77-68.

The loss is their first in the WBBL Championship since February 2018 when they went down at home to Leicester Riders. In both matches, their 4th quarter performances have come into question, where they were unable to score double figures. In fact,

Season looks promising for Purple army

Sevenoaks travelled away to Oxford on Saturday evening to face Oxford Hawks, who lay second bottom in National Division One South. In spite of their league position, Hawks have notched some impressive results, drawing with league leaders Oxted and an impressive 8-1 win over Fareham, so Oaks could not afford to underestimate their opposition.

With Hawks boasting the second meanest defence, behind Sevenoaks themselves, Oaks knew that they would need to be patient but also that a fast start would help, and a fast start was exactly what they got when a turnover deep in the Oxford half saw Oaks work the ball to Ali Taylor, who slipped the ball to Sam George who struck a beautiful reverse stick effort into the bottom corner to make it 1-0 to Oaks after just seven minutes.

As half-time approached a penalty corner won by Ed Matts was converted by Andrew Ross to make the score 2-0 going into the interval.

After the break, Oaks played some good attacking hockey, but too often the final pass was loose or they were denied by some good defensive play by Hawks. It wasn't until towards the end of the third quarter that they would extend their lead, when a strong run by Sam George ended with a loose ball in the D that was well finished by James Thomas to make it 3-0. The goal of the game came early in the fourth quarter when a fine pass by Ross was collected by man of the match Ben Fox, who calmly carried into the D, and picked out Matts, who was able to convert first time at the near post to make it 4-0 to Oaks.

on Saturday, Suns gave away a 12-point lead going into the final quarter, allowing their opponents 29 points on the board to win by nine.

Such is the competition in the WBBL now, this run was always going to be threatened. But Sevenoaks and coach Len Busch will go again and start another winning run for 2020. Let's hope they keep going for the full match next time!
