Oaks on a roll as season hits halfway mark

Sevenoaks Hockey Club Men's 1st XI ended the first half of the season with a convincing 6-2 win at home to Brighton on Sunday.

The win sends them into the Christmas break sitting in second place in National Division One South, just two points behind leaders, and local rivals, Oxted.

Ide Hill grind out derby win at Crockenhill

Ide Hill got back to winning ways on Saturday after a patchy November, with a George Kensell first half volley enough to see the visitors home in a scrappy contest at Crockenhill.

The conditions and pitch did not make for entertaining or slick fare, but Ide Hill did just enough against their local rivals to seal the three points and take Ide Hill back up to third in the table as they approach the festive break.

Crockenhill perhaps should have taken an early lead, a long kick from their keeper caught out the Hill defence, but the Crockenhill forward, decided to check back and the chance was lost. Ide Hill tried to get the ball down only sporadically, and when they did they passed through the lines and caused problems.

The winning goal came from such a passage and was well worked, a quick break down the right saw the returning Columb Grant fire a long, flat square ball to Craig Jackson on the edge of the box, who flipped a first time pass through to George Kensell struck a controlled volley in off both posts for his sixth of the season and his third in two games.

Manager Paul McDonagh was happy to get the win: "I'm very pleased with the 3 points, considering the conditions and pitch, which didn't lend itself to good football on either side. However, these are the games where you have to dig in and win and we did just that with a battling performance. It was great to have Ben Pearson back from injury, he made a huge impact on keeping Crockenhill out, as did the rest of the defence and goalkeeper in a much-needed clean sheet performance".

Suns progress to Cup semis

Sevenoaks showed no signs of disappointment – after having their record breaking Championship winning streak ended last weekend – with an 81-66 victory on the road at Leicester Riders.

Janice Monakana stole the show for the visitors with a game-high 23 points. Cat Carr also impressed with 16 points and 10 assists.
