

Knole Park juniors called up to England age group training

Five juniors from HC Knole Park have been called up to England age group training for the start of the 2021/22 season! The girls have all been selected from the England Hockey Futures Cup or from having impressed last season whilst on England age group duty.

Anna Faulstich, Josefina Hippe and Olivia Breed have all been called up to the England U16 squad, whilst Lottie Bingham and Pascale Pottier have been called up to the England U18 squad.

Anna, Olivia and Lottie all played for England over the summer in the U16s and clearly impressed the coaches with their hockey to get call ups for this season's training group. All three girls scored for the U16s over the summer in matches against Wales and Scotland.

Whilst Josefina and Pascale attended the England Hockey Futures Cup in August. Here the England coaches must have been impressed with Josefina as they voted for her as the Player of the Tournament! Meanwhile Pascale, who plays in goal, only let in one goal in her three matches, making a string of saves for her team, and showing her quality between the sticks.

The girls will all attend a training camp in September, before attending a residential camp during October half-term. In November the final squads will be confirmed for 2021/22.

Duncan Parnis, HC Knole Park's Director of Coaching said: "We are all really proud of all the girls. You can see how much they enjoy playing in how they play the game! They all work exceptionally hard in training every week throughout the year and often have to make tough choices to fit everything in with their hockey. You can see how much they motivate and push each other in training too – it's hugely positive! Everyone at KP wishes them the very best at their training camps and we look forward to seeing what the season holds for them!"

Sevenoaks Rugby club shine on the road

Sevenoaks Rugby club pulled off a fantastic result on Saturday afternoon as they beat CS Stags 1863 17-36 in a fine performance on the road. Tries from Ben Adams (2), Awa Morris, Fred Richardson and Josh Thorneycroft set up the bonus point win for Sevenoaks.

Sevenoaks' 2nd XV also won 14-53 away at Dorking, whilst the Gents (4th XV) beat Tonbridge Juddians 3rd 15-7 in the Kent 3 Rural league.

The 1st XV's win puts them in seventh position in the England Rugby London & SE Premier division. They host Havant next weekend at Knole Paddock, all support is always welcome.
