

DISTRICT SPORTS CLUBS HONOUR HM THE QUEEN AND KING CHARLES III

Sevenoaks Sport & Wellbeing paid tribute to Her Majesty The Queen and King Charles III on Sunday 11th September at the King's Proclamation of Accession held at The Vine War Memorial in Sevenoaks. Crowds lined the road to join the Deputy Lieutenant, Mr Lennox Cato and the Mayor of Sevenoaks, Councillor Rachel Parry, at 3.15pm to mark the accession of King Charles III to the throne after the passing of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II on Thursday afternoon. The Mayor of Sevenoaks announced: "I have today laid a living wreath, the plants of which will form part of a green legacy, alongside a memorial tree, in memory of our late sovereign. Today's ceremony marks the formal Proclamation to the people of Sevenoaks of the beginning of our new King's reign." In a tribute to the Queen, Sevenoaks Sport & Wellbeing's Editor Steve Rowley, laid flowers on behalf of all the District's sport clubs saying: "You're Majesty, Ma'am. On behalf of all the sports clubs in the Sevenoaks District, we thank you for your service to the nation and the commonwealth. We will teach our children and their children about you and your unwavering devotion to us all. May you forever rest in peace." He added: "On behalf of all our sports clubs in the Sevenoaks District, we join our nation in mourning the passing of HRH Queen Elizabeth II. We have lost a mother, a grandmother of the nation, nay the world. She became for many the one constant point in a rapidly changing world and we have been fortunate to have lived in the greatest Elizabethan Age."

GOD SAVE THE KING.
