SEVENOAKS ARE STILL GUNNING FOR THE CUP

The day of the FA Cup Third Qualifying Round match started particularly early for the club as they embarked onto a coach at 9.30am, leaving Greatness Park without their Manager Harry Hudson, following the arrival of his first baby earlier in the week.

On the coach were the players, coaching staff, committee members and supporters of the club, and after a somewhat quiet but extremely long road trip to north Somerset, arriving at 1.20pm, this meant that the team had minimal time to get themselves stretched out and match ready for the biggest day in the club's history. What would unfold in the Bath sunshine though, would rewrite the history books with Jordy Ndozid's first half winner maintained Sevenoaks Town's history making run in the Emirates FA Cup knocking out National League South Bath City.

The midfielder's first goal for the club 10 minutes before half-time, decided the Third Qualifying Round tie in front of a 1,000 plus crowd at Twerton Park on a sunny Somerset afternoon. It was a deserved victory against a side two divisions above them - even the locals agreed - sportingly applauding the players as they left for the journey home. Once again Oaks' preparations proved spot on, the game plan working - frustrating Bath who lost for the fifth time in 14 years to Step 4 opponents. The final whistle started the celebrations with the players face timing manager Hudson, the victory capping a memorable week for the Sevenoaks boss. Ryan Gondoh's free-kick was headed clear by home defender Jordan Dyson, only as far as Dan Hector whose effort was blocked. The ball fell to Ndozid who finished low inside Joe Wright's right hand post - his first for the club.

Bath meanwhile were restricted to only a couple of first half efforts, with manager Jerry Gill making a double substitution at the break.

Scott Wilson went close soon after the break as the hosts attempted to up their game, but Oaks defended well - and looked to break on the counter.

Bamba beat a couple of defenders before firing over, Dan Hector saw his effort blocked, before Manny Mensah went on a great run hugging the far touchline to relieve the pressure.

McCarthy denied Wilson again late on -

Oaks keeping out one final corner to complete another excellent result. Matthew Weaire and skipper Corey Holder, back after a one match ban, were outstanding, winning the joint Sevenoaks Sport & Wellbeing Man of the Match award - a first on the road this season due to the special nature of the win.

On Monday talkSPORT announced the draw for the next round and Sevenoaks Town (ball number 32) were drawn away yet again, this time against National South side table-toppers Ebbsfleet United. The short trip to Ebbsfleet will no doubt please Sevenoaks as it is an away fixture that will provide a decent gate receipt, but without the hassle of organising away travel for supporters.

Whatever happens in that match, we know for sure that the boys in blue and black will give 100% to the cause on the field once again.
